

I don't want the Wisconsin Do Not Call List weakened. When I have terminated business with a company, it is for a reason. I do not want to have them or their subsidiaries or partners calling me for the next 18 months or at anytime after I have ended the business relationship. Our phone number was put on the list for just that reason.